

A LIST OF ARTICLES IN CARDIGANSHIRE FHS JOURNALS 1996-2011

Volume 1, 1996-8

No. 1

A selected bibliography of material on the Welsh in the United States – Martha A. Davies
Archive provision in the new county of Cardiganshire: a progress report – D. Geraint Lewis
Sources for family history in the Cardiganshire Record Office – Ruth Costello
The family of John Hughes, farmer, of Llanbadarn Fawr, 1763-1842 – Helen M. Kaznowski
Dadcu sails out: but steams home in the end – Victor Williams

No. 2

The Diary of John Thorpe, c1776 – Shirley Martin
The Diary of Sir Bulstrode Whitelocke – Shirley Martin
Maritime matters – W. Holmes-Evans
Talybont in Africa – John Rowlands
Off to Wisconsin in the morning – Evan James
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century – 1: Llansantffraid – Sheila Rowlands
The Thomas Family of Llanbadarn Odwyn, Llanbadarn Fawr and Llanfihangel-y-Creuddyn Upper – Julie Preston

No. 3

Talybont (and Newtown) in Africa: a sequel – John Rowlands
Cardiganshire Parishes in the 19th Century – 2: Llanfihangel-y-Creuddyn (Lower) – Sheila Rowlands

No. 4

Wales Herald Extraordinary
A select guide to sources for family history in the National Library of Wales
Maritime matters: more on sources – W. Holmes-Evans
The Olivers of Cardiganshire – Edward T. Porter
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 3: Llanfihangel-y-Creuddyn Upper – Sheila Rowlands

No. 5

The Family Records Centre – Peter G. Williams
Notes on the tithe apportionment for the parish of Caron and its transcription – Shirley Martin
My seafaring ancestors of Aberystwyth: part 1 – W. Holmes-Evans
The search that took two years to complete (Llanerchaeron) – Mair Lloyd Evans
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 4, Llanerchaeron – Sheila Rowlands
The Lewis Connection – Mandy Pemberton

No. 6

Victorian attitudes: an Aberystwyth story – Helen Kaznowski
Patronymic surnames in south Cardiganshire (1800-1850): problems and solutions – Evan James
West Wales Historical Records: a valuable printed source – Sheila Rowlands

No. 7

Beginner's luck – Helen Forder
My seafaring ancestors of Aberystwyth: part 2 – W. Holmes-Evans
Gone to be a soldier – John Rowlands
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 5, Aberporth – Sheila Rowlands

No. 8

Members' interests – Sheila Rowlands
Two Aberystwyth schoolmasters: John Evans and David Samuel; a question – Dafydd Jenkins
My seafaring ancestors of Aberystwyth: part 3 – W. Holmes-Evans

Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 6, Cilcennin – Sheila Rowlands
Mining accidents in mid-Wales

No. 9

Vessels connected with my Aberystwyth family: part 1 – W. Holmes-Evans
Letters for the future – Helen Palmer
‘The sea is in your blood’ - Helen Forder
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 7, Llangwryfon – Sheila Rowlands

Volume 2, 1999-2001

No. 1

Vessels connected with my Aberystwyth family: part 2 – W. Holmes-Evans
Frank Lloyd Wright: the Ceredigion connection – Evan James
John Lloyd of Dale Castle: Cardiganshire landowner – Peter G. Williams
A little Wales in the USA – Clive Betts.
“Don’t forget you are Welsh” – Annie Lloyd

No. 2

The Killing family in Wales – part 1 – Glenda Garrelts Mattes
Two Cardi goldminers in South Africa – Roland Thorne
Cyfrifiad mowyr Cymru / Index of Welsh master mariners and mates – Reginald Davies
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 8, Llanafan – Sheila Rowlands
‘How did you find your relatives when you live 6,000 miles away?’ – John R. Murtaugh

No. 3

The new Poor Law Act of 1834 – Shirley Martin
The Aberystwyth Union Workhouse in 1891 – Peter G. Williams
The Killing family in Wales – part 2 – Glenda Garrelts Mattes
Plwyf Llangynfelyn – Stephen Bentham

No. 4

Misconceptions arising from the 1891 census – Shirley Martin
Searching for strangers – Helen Palmer
Cardiganshire parishes in the 19th century: 8 [sic. 9], Llandygwydd – Sheila Rowlands

No. 5

The Hughes Family of Llanfihangel Geneu’glyn and Llancynfelin – Helen M. Kaznowski
Aberystwyth photographers of yesterday – Shirley Williams
The “IT” revolution in large and small family history societies – Eddie Heaton
Sir Edmund Hornby and Noyadd Trefawr, Llandygwydd – Shirley Martin

No. 6

Create your own website – Eddie Heaton
The shadow in the family – Helen Palmer
David Morgans, police officer: a life’s journey from Llangwryfon to Aberystwyth – Gwladys Main

No. 7

Memoirs of a Cardiganshire boy – David Jenkins
Genuki – Gareth Hicks

No. 8

An Illustrious Son of Cardiganshire: Rev. David Edwardes, MA, JP, 1836-1916 – Jenni Hyatt
My “new” Cardiganshire family – Jane Arch

Abernantbychan (Plas y Glyn), Glynarthen, Penbryn – Ann Owen Taylor

No. 9

David Owen Jones (1899-1926): Military Medallist – Ann Owen Taylor

My introduction to genealogy: or how a golf lesson led to an addiction and trouble with the Jones family –

Norma Ashworth

A most unusual memorial – John Rowlands

A ride through history – Boyd Williams

Shopkeepers of Swyddffynnon: a family diary and ledger – Philip Jenkins

Volume 3, 2002-04

No. 1

Aberystwyth and the King's shilling: a study of a local family – John Rowlands

Adding personal details to a family tree – Ceredig Davies

The Davies/Jones Family of Clawdd Dewi, Llanddewi Arerarth [Aberarth] – Harold Robinson

The Colonel, the judge and Cilcennin – David Lewis Jones

No. 2

A fatal mining accident – Ceredig Davies

My "illustrious" ancestry – Norma Ashworth

No. 3

Genuki – Gareth Hicks

More on the Morgans family of Trefenter, Llangwryron [Llangwryfon] – Shirley Martin

Job Oswell Davies (1900-1950): headmaster Glynarthen C. P. School, Penbryn Parish – Anne Owen Taylor

A long walk to work – Denis S. Evans

Discovering Elizabeth – Diane Reppun

No. 4

Conditions of inheritance – John Hughes

The Hughes family of Tregaron – Delyth Wilson

A letter written by John David Lloyd to his daughter – Ceredig Davies

No. 5

The Williams Family of Dolau Aeron – Geoffrey B. Thomas

Trinity House petitions: part 1 – John Rowlands

Missing links – David Eynon

Stephen Owen (1869-1933) of Plas Abernantbychan, Glynarthen, Penbryn parish – Anne Owen Taylor

No. 6

To North Wales via India: two clerical brothers from Cardiganshire – Aidan Jones

Additional information on the Dolau Aeron family – Geoffrey B. Thomas

Was the name Ajax or was it Morgan? – Annie Lloyd

Trinity House petitions: part 2 – John Rowlands

No. 7

A place of mistaken identity? – Peter G. Williams

The Llwyngrono family – T. Bernard Jones

Genealogy mailing lists . . . from the inside – Gareth Hicks

Family connections and ship ownership – John Rowlands

Clerical exiles from Cardiganshire: Morgan Davies at Connah's Quay and Thomas Davies at Llanddoget – Aidan Jones

No. 8

The very first grave and a family mystery – Geoffrey Brynmor Thomas
John Jones: master clogmaker and fisherman – David Gorman
The story of Henry and Mary Thomas of Llanddewi Aberarth: Part 1 – Shirley Martin
Roderick Jones, operatic baritone (1910-1992) – J. M. Usoro
Education in Cardiganshire 1846-47: the Blue Books – Aidan Jones

No. 9

The Summer outing – Delyth Wilson
Soar y Mynydd – E. E. Lynne Richards
Ceredigion ancestors of Joe Tanner, Astronaut – Evan L. James
More information about Roderick Jones, operatic baritone – Shirley Martin
The story of Henry and Mary Thomas, of Llanddewi Aberarth: part 2 – Shirley Martin
Who was Who? – John Hughes

Volume 4, 2005-07No. 1

Americans in Cardiganshire in 1881 – Gerald Morgan and J. Ann Davies
The pedigree of the Griffiths family of Llanddewi Brefi – W. D. Griffiths
A great-grandfather discovered – Geoffrey B. Thomas
A Blue Book schoolmaster? – Bill Griffith-Jones

No. 2

More connections with Soar-y-Mynydd – Kay Lorraine Price
Corpses on trains – Aidan Jones
The first graves in the cemeteries of Ceredigion – Auronwy James
'www.llangynfelyn.org': the Llangynfelyn parish history website – Nigel Callaghan

No. 3

Turnips and silver cups – Aidan Jones
The valuation office property survey, 1910-1915 (also known as the Lloyd George Survey) for Tregaron and Strata Florida – Shirley A. Martin
Crime and punishment in Cardiganshire – Glyn Parry and John Rowlands
On the web – Aidan Jones

No. 4

Shelby or Selby? – John Hughes
Searching for strangers: (the tale continued) – Peter G. Williams
Schools and education in Llanarth – Mari Norman

No. 5

Shelby or Selby?: an addendum – John Hughes
Food was not a problem – Mari Norman
My journey into family history – Peggy Bingham
Migrants from Ceredigion – John Hughes

No. 6

The National Burial Index – Auronwy James
'With help from friends' – John Hughes
William Trevethan of Cornwall and Cardiganshire – Bob Trevethan

No.7

Merchant seamen's provisions on 19th century ships – Richard Williams
Transcribing Tregaron burials 1654-1812 – Shirley Martin
A problem of civil registration of births – Dave Wilson
Mary Mellor: mystery lady – Delyth Wilson

No. 8

Everyone with their troubles – E. Margaret Royle
Captains Daniel & Jenkin Jones of Aberaeron – Hugh Reekie
Family connections: part 1 – John Hughes

No. 9

Family connections: part 2 – John Hughes
Relatives from Mars? – David Humphreys
Master of the workhouse – Mari Norman
Ceredigion Archives accession 1301: the Hafod Estate collection – Ania Zofia Skarżyńska

Volume 5, 2008-2010No. 1

A most interesting will – Annie Lloyd
Llangrannog to Afghanistan: life of a Victorian soldier – Howel Jones
Family connections: part 3 – John Hughes
Mary Owen (1864 – 1919): her story – Margaret Royle

No. 2

'Plentyn llwyn a pherth' – Jenni Hyatt
Family connections: part 4 – John Hughes
The kissing cousins of Penglais, and the Llanerchaeron legacy – Barbara Evans

No. 3

Family connections: part 5 – John Hughes
The Bonsall tomb in Llanafan churchyard – Barbara Evans
Ceredigion's clockmakers – Alun C. Davies
The Eglwys Newydd tragedy of 1856 – Trevor T. Edwards

No. 4

Notes on the Bonsall family – Shirley Martin
Family connections: part 6 – John Hughes
Newspapers as a source for CGN family history – David L Jones
From Wales to London – Ron Lott
The Reverend Daniel Jones, 1724 to 1783?: Curate then Vicar of Tregaron 1749-1783 – Shirley Martin
Three ancestors: six evictions – Owen Jenkins

No. 5

Sacrament certificates – David L. Jones
Cardiganshire parishes: Llanwnnws / Gwnnws – Beryl Evans
Thomas Doughton, born in Aberystwyth in 1857 – Peter R. Gosson
The second family of the Rev Isaac Williams of Llanrhystud: part 1 – Barbara Evans
Family connections: part 7 – John Hughes

No. 6

Cardiganshire parishes: Llancynfelin / Llancynvelyn – Menna H. Evans
The second family of the Rev Isaac Williams of Llanrhystud: part 2 – Barbara Evans

A local monument restored – Roger Haggard
Every picture has a story – Susan James
The two Whitelock sisters who married two Pryse brothers – Shirley Martin
St Helena and the Richardes family of Bryneithyn – Barbara Evans
Aberystwyth War Memorial and D. H. Doughton – Peter R. Gosson

No. 7

Borth & Ynyslas Golf Club: links with the past – Tessa Briggs
Six degrees of separation: the London Welsh connection – Barbara Evans

No. 8

Cardiganshire parishes: Ysbyty Cynfyn – Amanda Key
Thomas Doughton, born in 1826 at Aberystwyth – Peter Gosson
An addendum to the Evans/Gastineau story – Barbara Evans
The will of Richard Jones – Barbara Evans
The family at Tynrhelig – Barbara Evans
Further information about the Rev. Daniel Jones – Shirley Martin
Lucy Theakston and her Lloyd ancestors – David L. Jones
My ancestor was an Excise man - Joan Paparo
Aberystwyth War Memorial: the story behind another name – Peter G. Williams

No. 9

A sad letter from America – Jenni W. Hyatt
Thomas Lloyd (1820 – 1898) of Brynhope Farm – Joan Paparo
More on Mary Mellor née Jones – Shirley Martin
William Cobb Gilbertson – Helen Carn
Family connections: part 8 – John Hughes

Volume 6, 2011-

No. 1

Extracts from the diary of Mary E. Davies – Barbara Evans
Hester Scawen's will – Shirley Martin
A description of a CGN wedding – Barbara Evans
Llangeitho and Llanybi biddings – Beryl Evans
Family connections: part 9 – John Hughes

No. 2

John Doughton, born in 1824 at Aberystwyth – Peter Gosson
Polling day in Cardiganshire in 1865 – Barbara Evans
A sailor's life: John Lloyd's story – Susan James
A brick wall demolished but . . . – Delyth Wilson and Alwyn Thompson
My elusive Lewis family of Aberystwyth – Gill Byatt

No. 3

A wartime childhood in Llanarth – Mari Norman
Mary Lloyd: daughter of David Lloyd – Joan Paparo
Help from the Registrar's Office – Barbara Evans
Jemimah Jones and her family – Geoffrey B. Thomas
Family connections: part 10 – John Hughes